From: Richard G's Ukulele Songbook www.scorpexuke.com

Intro: [F] [C] [C] [G]

[G] Oh my land is like a [Am] wild goose

[C] Wanders all around [G] every[C]where [D] [C]

[G] Trembles and it shakes till every [Am] tree is loose

[C] It rolls the meadows and it [G] rolls the [C] nails [D] [C]

[G] So take me down to your [Am] dance floor

[C] And I won't mind the people [G] when they [C] stare [D] [C]

[G] Paint a different colour on your [Am] front door

[C] And tomorrow we will [G] still be [C] there [D] [C]

[G] Jesus built a ship to sing a [Am] song to

[C] It sails the rivers and it [G] sails the [C] tide [D] [C]

[G] Some of my friends don't know who they bel[Am]ong to

[C] Some can't get a single thing to [G] work in[C]side [D] [C]

[G] So take me down to your [Am] dance floor

[C] And I won't mind the people [G] when they [C] stare [D] [C]

[G] Paint a different colour on your [Am] front door

[C] And tomorrow we will [G] still be [C] there [D] [C]

[G] I loved you every day and now I'm [Am] leaving

[C] And I can see the sorrow [G] in your [C] eyes [D] [C]

[G] I hope you know a lot more than you're bel[Am]ieving

[C] Just so the sun don't hurt you [G] when you[C] cry [D] [C]

[G] Oh take me down to your [Am] dance floor

[C] I won't mind the people [G] when they [C] stare [D] [C]

[G] Paint a different colour on your [Am] front door

[C] And tomorrow we may [G] still be [C] there [D] [C]

[Am] And tomorrow we may [C] still be there [G]
