Back [F] when the [C] West was [F] young
[Dm] Two boys learned to [Am] rope and ride
And be [Bb] handy with a [F] gun
[Dm] War broke out be[F]tween the [C] states
And they [F] joined up [C] with Quant[F]trill
And it was [Dm] over in Clay [Am] County
That [Bb] Frank and Jesse [C] finally learned to [F] kill

Keep on [Dm] riding [C] riding [Bb] riding un[Gm]til you clear your [F] names
Keep on [Dm] riding [C] riding [Bb] riding
'Cross the [Dm] rivers [C] and the [Bb] range
Keep on [Dm] riding [C] riding [Bb] riding Frank and.....Jesse [Dm] James*

[Dm] After Appo[F] mattox [C] they was [F] on the [C] losing [F] side
So no [Dm] amnesty was [Am] granted and as [Bb] outlaws they did [F] ride
They [Dm] rode against the [F] railroads [C] and They [F] rode a[C]gainst the [F] banks
And they [Dm] rode against the [Am] governor
[Bb] Never did they [C] ask for a word of [F] thanks

Chorus

[Dm] Robert Ford a [F] gunman [C] in ex[F]change for [C] his [F] parole
Took the [Dm] life of James the [Am] outlaw
Which he [Bb] snuck up on and [F] stole
[Dm] No one know just [F] where they [C] came to [F] be mis[C]under[F]stood
But the [Dm] poor Missouri [Am] farmers know
That [Bb] Frank and Jesse [C] do the best they [F] could
