[D] Let us pause in life's [D7] pleasures and [G] count its many [D] tears
[G] While we [D] all sup [A] sorrow with the [D] poor [Dus4] [D]
[D] There's a song that will [D7] linger for [G] ever in our [D] ears,
[G] Oh, [D] hard times, [A] come again no [D] more [Dus4] [D]

Chorus:

[D] 'Tis the song, the sigh of the [G] wea[D]ry.

[D] Hard times, hard times, come again no [A] m[Asus4]ore [A] [A7]

Many [D] days you have [D7] lingered a[G]round my cabin [D] door.

[G] Oh, [D] hard times, [A7] come again no [D] more [Dus4] [D]

[D] While we seek mirth and [D7] beauty and [G] music light and [D] gay
[G] There are [D] frail forms [A] fainting at the [D] door [Dus4] [D]
[D] Though their voices are [D7] silent their [G] pleading looks will [D] say,
[G] Oh, [D] hard times, [A7] come again no [D] more [Dus4] [D]

Chorus

[D] There's a pale drooping [D7] maiden who [G] toils her life a[D]way
[G] With a [D] worn heart whose [A] better days are [D] o'er [Dus4] [D]
[D] Though her voice it would be [D7] merry, 'tis [G] sighin' all the [D] day,
[G] Oh, [D] hard times, [A7] come again no [D] more [Dus4] [D]

Chorus

Chorus

[G] Oh, [D] hard times, [A7] come again no [D] more [Dus4] [D]
