From: Richard G's Ukulele Songbook www.scorpex.net/Uke

G chord riff: [G] [G] [G] [Gsus4] [G] [Gsus2]    Intro: Riff x 4

[G] I remember to this day (riff)

The [C] bright red [D] Georgia [G] clay (riff)

And [G] how it stuck to the tyres after the [D] summer rain

Will [G] power made that old car go (riff)

A woman's [C] mind told [D] me that [G] so (riff)

[G] Oh how I wish we were

[F] Back on the road a[C]gain [D] [C] [D]

Chorus: [C] Me and [D] you and a [G] dog named Boo

[C] Travellin' and a [D] livin' off the [G] land

[C] Me and [D] you and a [G] dog named boo

How I [F] love bein' [C] a free [G] man (riff x 2)

[G] I can still recall the [C] wheat fields [D] of St. Paul

And the [G] morning we got caught robbing from an old [D] hen

Old Mc[G] Donald he made us work

But then he [C] paid us for [D] what it was [G] worth (riff)

A[G]nother tank of gas and [F] back on the road a[C]gain [D]

Chorus

I'll [G] never forget the day

We motored [C] stately into [D] big L[G]A (riff)

The [G] lights of the city put settlin' down in my [D] brain

Though it's only [G] been a month or so

That old [C] car's buggin' [D] us to [G] go (riff)

We[G] gotta get away and get [F] back on the road a[C]gain [D]

Chorus x 2 (no riff between)
