From: Richard G's Ukulele Songbook www.scorpexuke.com

Bus was [C] late

I don't care guess it's something to [Em] say

Ride around with the prams out of [Am] day care

Complain suited crowds block the way

Slip to a seat [F] right at the back and watch the clouds bleed to black

And why [C] race

I'll get home sometime like yester[Em]day

My pay's been late a couple of [Am] days

Don't complain trade some sleep for some patience

Have a [F] snack and just relax your back needs a break

Chorus: And I [C] hope you'll be already [Em] home

And I [Am] hope you'll be already [F] home

What's this [C] game

We run around and deal out our [Em] names

Build castles in the sand then wash a[Am]way

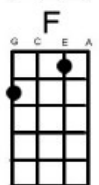

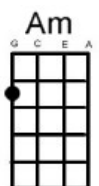

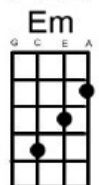

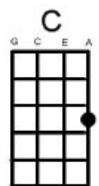

Put my jumper on think winter's on its [F] way

It's getting [C] late

It's a short walk from the stop to our [Em] place

My hands are cold the shops light the [Am] way

But I'll walk the other way tomorrow a[F]gain

Repeat Chorus

And the [C] kids in their school uniforms get off at the same time as me

I [Em] offer them my good luck hope they're happy when they're sleepy

A [Am] weepy little thing doesn't like the peak bus on a week day

I [F] slide out of my seat so that her dad can rest his feet

And there's [C!] billionaires for president and parking fines at hospitals

[Em] I'm not the [Am] only one that knows

I brush the crumbs on off my clothes [F]

Repeat Chorus x 2

[C] [Em] [Am] [F] [C!]
