Intro: Em Fm F G C

[C] War made him a [Am] soldier [F] Little [Fm] Frankie [C] Mear
[C] Peace left him a [Am] loser The [F] little [Fm] bombar[C]dier
[Am] Lines of worry a[F]ppeared with age
[G] Unskilled hands that [C] knew no trade
[Em] Spent his time in the [Fm] picture house the [F] little [G] bombar[C]dier

F Fm C

[C] Frankie drank his [Am] money the [F] little [Fm] that he [C] made
[C] Told his woes to [Am] no man [F] friendless, [Fm] lonely [C] days
[Am] Then one day, in the [F] ABC
[G] Four bright eyes gazed [C] longingly
[Em] At the ice-cream [Fm] in the hand of the [F] little [G] bombar[C]dier

Gm D7

[Gm] Sunshine entered our [D7] Frankie's days
[Gm] Gone his worries, his [D7] hopeless maze
His [Eb] life was fun and his [G] heart was full of [D7] joy

[Gm] Two young children had [D7] changed his aims
He [Gm] gave them toffees and [D7] played their games
He [Eb] bought them presents with [G] every coin he [D7] made

Instrumental: C Am F Fm C / C Am F Fm C / Am F G C / Em Fm F G C

[C] Then two gentlemen [Am] called on him [F] asked him [Fm] for his [C] name
[C] Why was he friends with the [Am] children [F] were they [Fm] just a game?
[Am] Leave them alone or [F] we'll get sore
We've [G] had blokes like you in the [C] station before
The [Em] hand of authority [Fm] said "no more" to the [F] little [G] bombar[C]dier
[Am] Packed his bags, his [F] heart in pain [G] wiped a tear and [C] caught a train
[Em] Not to be seen in the [Fm] town again the [F] little [G] bombar[C]dier
